Furniture That "Glidders"

"All that glidders is not gold," says Mr. Dinkelspiel, "but if it does glider, you can bet it ain't mud."

You can apply Mr. Dinkelspiel's logic to furniture. You can't always be sure that a beautiful table or chair with good lines or careful finish is everything it pretends to be.

But you can be sure that it won't jar your nerves every time you come into the room.

And the man who can be trusted to put good lines into furniture can generally be trusted as to materials.

Every article in this entire store is guaranteed as to materials—and the designs can be trusted.

Avoid "Fly Time" Linoleum

"Women demand cheap linoleum," said a manufacturer, "so we make it."

"The boys call it 'fly-time' linoleum because most women put it down about the time the flies appear—and it's worn out before they go."

"The only material that will make real linoleum that lasts, is cork and oil. The process cannot be cheapened. When people insist on cheaper grades they cheat themselves."

Good linoleum will last years. And it costs only a little more than the 'fly-time' variety.

Now is the time to put down good linoleum. It protects the floors and makes them sanitary.

For bath, kitchen, porch, and (imitation wood) for libraries, offices, dining-rooms and living rooms.

Printed Linoleums . . . 50c and 60c per yard
Inlaid Linoleums, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50 per yard

No English speaking actress of today compares with Virginia Harned as an emotional actress in the opinion of the New York critics and in "The Woman He Married," which Miss Harned will offer at the opera house next Monday evening, May 1, she has splendid opportunities to demonstrate her true work. "The Woman He Married" is by Herbert Bachford and describes a phase of New York life new to the dramatic stage. Miss Harned declares that the drama is the greatest vehicle she has ever had since her starring tours with E. H. Sothern and her appearance both in the United States and in London in "Iris," "Springtime" and her other phenomenal successes.

The ladies' and pastor's union realized a considerable sum from the proceeds of the supper and entertainment given in the vestry of the Hedding Methodist church last evening. Baked beans and brown bread were the "leaders" on an excellent menu, and, from liberal patronage which it received, the good of New England fare was evidently popular with the crowd. Later in the evening a program of unusual merit was carried out before a large audience and added materially to the proceeds. The numbers follow: Piano solo, Beatrice Bugbee; reading, Marion Anker; singing, Hedding male chorus; piano solo, Evelyn Mathieson; reading, Mary Bishop; vocal solo, Albra Leslie; violin quartet, Knight, Sanborn, Coutts and Spencer; vocal duet, Madeline Camp, Lindall Lebourveau; reading, Hazel Lyon; vocal solo, Evelyn Bugbee. The supper was served by two circles of the union, comprising some twenty-five members, who also took charge of the entertainment.

Just Back from New York!

On our trip to New York this week we were able to pick up some extra good values in ladies' and misses' Suits and Coats. Here is a chance for you to get some extra good trades in Coats that are new and a little different. Many of these Coats are cloths we cannot duplicate, and it is not a bad idea either, especially if you can find your size. The way we know we have got the right goods at the right prices is by keeping in close touch with the market.

Ladies' Long Coats

The Long Coat is just as popular as ever if not more so, and we can show you one of the best, and an extraordinarily large line of these Coats.

At $10.00 we have got some extra values in mixtures. These are coats we picked up in New York this week and are coats that we made up to sell for more money.

At $12.50 is a line of Long Coats in a variety of different cloths. Some of these Coats are odd Coats we had in stock and others we picked up under price. There are some extra values in mixtures that sold at $16.50. Now $12.50. No duplicates.

Ladies' Tailored Suits

The tailored Suit is the popular dressy garment of the season. While you may need the long Coat to wear with separate skirts, and light dresses, you will want the Suit for a more dressy garment.
